AVON HIGH SCHOOL, AVON, MASSACHUSETTS

SCHOOL LIFE

Avon High School: Small but Mighty. That is a fitting description for a tiny high school with fewer than 140 students that manages to include 98 courses and a complete range of extracurricular life. The 1988-89 school year has included the student/community production of "Grease," pep rallies, a second straight Mayflower League championship for the almost undefeated boys' basketball team. There have been school dances (Halloween, semi-formal, and prom), a teacher-prepared Christmas dinner with variety show, and an end-of-year student/faculty barbecue. The AHS Honor Society sponsored several blood drives. Our students have participated in the Peer Leadership program, with several of them going out to counsel younger students in other towns on the dangers of drug and alcohol addiction. We have hosted nationally-famous speaker Ted Kennedy, Jr. Our students have studied science and math at Harvard University. All this has been accomplished while enjoying the closeness between students and faculty possible only in a small school. We feel ourselves fortunate to share in the life of our academics community, avoiding by its very size the cut-throat competition of so many larger schools, without sacrificing the breadth and depth of a quality high school experience. Our alumni are proof of the excellence of an Avon education. We currently have AHS graduates studying successfully at MIT, Boston College, Bates, Colby, Emerson, Northeastern, Stonehill, U. Mass. Amherst and Boston, Worcester and Lowell Polytech, Bridgewater, Fitchburg, etc. School life at Avon is as rich in old friendships and traditions as it is in the quality of academic choice, preparing students to face the challenges of adult life in a larger world.

The school bus is an integral part of every school day.

Rick prepares his day.

Chrissy prepares yearbook copy.

The school day begins here.

Good Morning Avon High!

Michelle gets some homework done.

Sue prepares to give blood - and even smiles about it.

Ted Kennedy Jr. speaks to the students.

Cory takes aim with the video cam.

Brendan takes a break from studies to read the day's sports.

Scrooge and friend stop by for a visit.

Home Ec. is alive and well at Avon High.

Looks like Jodi went with the salad bar.

Pam and Lynda lend mutual support.

Avon's Chorus Line

Escuchando y hablando, Ben y Jennifer aprenden español.

Mr. J leads the cheers at a pep rally.

Sue takes a breather from gym class.

CJ at the pong table.

Mr. Mills shows a sanding technique.

Intelligent listeners

Time Out!

Far right: Ann and Jeff at the semi-formal
Right: Sue and Pauline in Spain

Girl-talk at the prom

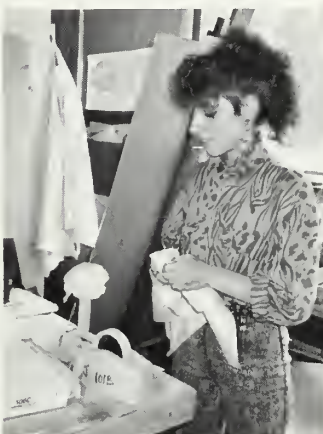

Derek and Mike decide to show Jeff the library.

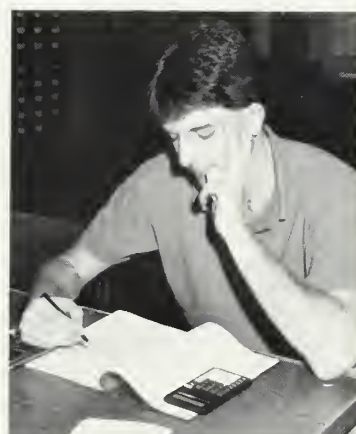

Brian and Mike date Avon alumnae Tricia and Donna

Laura, Kristen, and Joe strut their stuff.

Stacy works on an art project.

Mike concentrates on a heady assignment.

Darlene Merlo shows what it means to be earthy.

A proud tradition

AVON'S BEST

Mrs. Miller poses with her future business tycoons.

Karl tells Mr. Gifford that this isn't as easy as running the D.W. course.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

Dr. Joseph B. Rappa

To the Class of 1989:

My heartfelt congratulations to all of the members of the Class of 1989. This Yearbook represents a lasting testament to the times, changes and triumphs you have experienced at Avon High over the past year. To quote an old Paul Simon song, "Preserve your memories"

The value of this book and the friendships and associations you have made will continue to grow as the years pass by. This collective "snapshot" of our school, teachers and your friends is like a compass point to which you can always refer as you fulfill your hopes and dreams in an uncharted future. Best of luck and good fortune to all of you.

REFLECTIONS ON A SCHOOL DAY

by Chrissy Glowka

Oh, No! The alarm clock is going off again. Its so-o-o loud. "Desire" by U2 is playing on the clock radio. Wow, that's weird, I heard that right before I fell asleep. I'll just sit here five more minutes and listen to the song. Time to get into the shower. Yuk, I hate this Agree shampoo. My hair doesn't do anything after I use it; It just goes flat. This isn't going to be a very good morning, I have detention again! It's strange that I have detention for being late but I'm never late for detention. Well, I might be late if this truck doesn't start - This dumb old 1980 Scottsdale truck. I need a new one. I don't see why detention is so early in the morning. Everyone is half asleep and can't concentrate. The good thing about it is that it's shorter than afternoon detention.

The bell is ringing. Here comes everyone into homeroom, looking over notes for the first period tests that they forgot to study for. This is the time everyone has to catch up on gossip. Is Michelle still going with that guy Mark from Brockton? Did Laura say she got accepted to Bentley?

First period should have started a few minutes ago, but Mr. Lyons is late. Everyone is hoping Mrs. Azer will come in so we don't have to take the 20 word vocabulary quiz that only Sue, Kelli and Pauline studied for. Here comes Mr. Lyons, slowly shuffling into class with a grin on his face, he knew what everyone was thinking. Now come all the excuses: "My dog ate it; It's not Friday, yet; I had to go shopping for my mother; My boyfriend and I were fighting."

Only second period and the day's going by slowly. As I'm on my way to Mr. J's class everyone seems to be waking up. People are panicking because the term ends Friday. Everyone wants to get good grades. Mr. J always gives in and gives us a little free time to talk and find out who's going to the semi-formal and what's going on Friday night; we talk about all sorts of stuff.

Just before third period there is always a line in the bathroom. Most kids go to the bathroom because they have to, but some just go to have a cigarette. Pam and Betty always have their eyes out for Mrs. Miller so they won't get busted. You can hardly see yourself in the mirror because of the "fog."

Third period is always dreaded. Not because it's Mrs. Miller's shorthand class, but because the heat is always intense in her room and it makes you real tired. Just before your head falls onto your book, your stomach growls and you want to eat lunch real bad, even if it is braised beef over instant potatoes, and/or the infamous potato puffs.

Fourth period, history class. "Der, Mr. Henderson. Why do we want to know who the fifth president was when we are going on our 41st this year? or, What was the name of Teddy Roosevelt's favorite vacation site?" I think we should learn about our contemporaries. For example, Jen Gray or Tom Cruise, or even new music groups like "Guns -n- Roses" or "Public Enemy." Let's get relevant!

Sixth period isn't just a regular fun gym class, it's a requirement. "If you don't shut up and stretch, I'll throw you out." threatens Mr. Mastriano. "Stop scaring us, Mr. Mastriano; We give in" says Cory. Gym is a good class to release all our piled up energy. Some kids like physics better, but others prefer gym class with Dom. It's never the same everyday!

Seventh period, yearbook class. "I thought this was supposed to be a class." Brian says, as we see Derek and Scott playing Ping Pong. We have many deadlines to meet with the production of the yearbook, and meeting deadlines is not easy. Mr. Ruggles is always nervous about meeting deadlines; I'm surprised he hasn't gone looney with this year's class. But we get the work done somehow. Chrissy and Jodi are running up and down the stairs to type copy on the computers, and dodging the teachers because they have forgotten a pass. Jeff, Scott, and Derek are at their center table designing and laying out ad pages. Laura and Kristen are hidden in the room working on the "Class Best" pages. Mike's working (sometimes) on the "Baby Pictures" and Brian, our Co-Editor is sitting in his "Office" with his feet propped up on a table, gazing dreamily at his pin-up girls on the wall.

THE MORSS REVIEW

One afternoon way back in January, Scrooge went home from school pooped. He had done nothing but correct research papers and his advancing years had caught up with him. He put his silver pate on the pillow to take a sinker. Suddenly, he found himself about to SALLY forth to Washington, D.C., to take in the inauguration of George Bush. This was a big deal, not some crumby local WARD politics. He was loath to take off time from Avon High School, but Mr. LEVINE, the man with a lot of CLOUGHt in the building, had called him in. "Whatsa MATTA? Good KNIGHT! This is SMALLtime stuff. Get outta the LYONS den. Take the time. Go! Washington ain't far, y'know. It's near VIRGINIA and MARILYN."

So, to BRUCE himself up, Scrooge dressed up in his BROOKS Brothers suit, just back from ANTON Cleaners, in order to look DAPPER, and even though it COSTA lot and he wasn't RICH, he decided to take the GAMBELL. He got his plane and inauguration tickets, leaving a KELLI girl named MARY to substitute in his classes. Besides, he needed to get away. All his students did was complain and say, "You BOIROS." So off he went to the RUGGLES St. T station, to head off to Logan and to see Mr. Bush put his Mark on a new administration.

When he arrived at the nation's capital, he found things to be COIT something. There were mobs of people everywhere, but he knew he could be at DESENA of things, because he had a letter personally signed by Mr. Bush saying Very TRUDY yours, inviting him to come to D.C. for a really SAVAGE time.

The first event he attended at the DAWN of a new presidency was a great concert at the Lincoln Memorial, where people were sitting on the WINTERGRASS in JEANS. The crowd was good and police did not have to HASLAM. The first act Scrooge saw was the MILLS Brothers singing oldies like "LAURA." This was followed by Great SCOTT EISNOR, pounding the ivories and singing, "I got my three-ill, on blueBERRY hee-hill." The famous Italian tenor, LELAND CONTI, then got up to give his moving rendition of "Sweet Rosie O'GRADY." Some people left at this point to go to the JOHN. The best performer of all, though, was a very SHEPLEY girl, dressed in BROWN Indian attire, with features and a headband, named KRISTEN BUCCELLA. She sang "Home on the Range." What a sweet voice she had, as she sang those famous lyrics: "... And SELDIN is heard a discouraging word, And the skies are not cloudly all day." One lady sitting nearby, who said she was from Santa BARBARA, turned to Scrooge and said, "I do deCLAIRE! Ain't that purty!" KRISTEN continued to DOMinate the scene. She then proved her operatic talents by singing Die LORELEI, in German no less, even though an ursine blond fellow surprisingly similar to Mr. HENDERSON kept groaning, "Oh, GIF me a break!"

Then it DAWNed on Scrooge that all sorts of things were going on all around. Hawkers were selling food from wheelBARROWS, pushing them through the crowd, but it seemed better not to buy anything because of SELMANella poisoning. From DEMARSH along the Potomac, an old steam yacht, a model of the ANDREA D'AURIA, was making its way upstream, its engine making an audible "GLOWKA, GLOWKA, GLOWKA" wheezing noise, occasionally punctuated by a "PAM! PAM! PAM!" as it coughed and then began going "GLOWKA, GLOWKA" again. PETER PIEKARSKI was visible in a boat pouring gas from a GERRY can into a JOHNSON outboard, while SUE NAZ was out in a rowboat, PAULINE at the oars.

Meanwhile, on the roads, traffic was unbearable. Every LANE was blocked, and someone in a CJ had stalled. He cranked and cranked the engine. "NASUTI, NASUTI, NASUTI"-but it wouldn't start. As Scrooge looked around, he suddenly spotted another president, JODI FERRINI, her arm around her boyfriend. She looked at him COYly and said, "Oh, SWEET -y pie, that's JOE DEANGELIS over in the Jeep. Do go help him, won't you, darling?" But nothing would help. The motor had such a bad RAPPA that it had blown up and a towtruck with a DEREK had to come to take it away, probably the Washington version of DOHERTY's Garage. Meanwhile, overhead, a hot air balloon went over, containing Tip O'NEIL and HEALEY-um. It stayed up wonderfully. But all of a sudden it began to make ringing noises. Ring! Ring! Ring!- and then, HAYDEN to let go of the dream, Scrooge stumbled out of bed and into the den to answer the telephone which had awakened him.

“So, to BRUCE himself up,
Scrooge dressed up in his BROOKS Brothers suit.”

MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED: The Class of 1989!

CLASS WILL OF 1989

Kelli Anderson: I leave next year's cheerleaders the hassle of trying to dress 12 people with 7 sweaters.

Chuck Barrow: I leave my school spirit and wish all the coaches good luck in the years to come.

Rick Boris: I leave Mr. Ruggles a case of "Sprite".

Lynda Brown: I leave to Mr. Levine and Mrs. Malcolmson all the frustration and anguish I've been put through.

Kristen Buccella: I leave Mr. Morss some more valiums, Mr. Conti a trip to Turkey with Ana Louisa Salas Poras, and Mr. Gifford my smile.

Pauline Ciolek: I leave thanks to all my teachers and the best of luck to Regina and Carina.

Brian Costa: I leave Davus Ruggles a larger Latin class and one that knows how to chat; Mr. Conti a lamb (Baaa), Mr. Lyons a straight jacket and a blackboard full of chalk to Mr. Gifford the varsity basketball coaching job and my tan to all those ghosts who made fun of me.

Ken Coy: I leave my sister a great four years and an awesome art class with Mrs. Mahoney.

Dave D'Auria: I leave Mr. Lyons my notebook — 3rd edition.

Joe DeAngelis: I leave the underclassmen all my Senior Privileges: in other words, I have nothing to leave.

Mark Doucette: I leave Mr. Lyons someone else to finish his sentences and Mr. Herl His double period physics lectures.

Scott Eisnor: I leave Mr. Gifford the nickname "Bag Man" to give someone else and to Mrs. Wintergrass the saying "I hate when that happens."

Jodi Ferrini: I leave Mr. Lyons chalk and Mrs. Miller all my shorthand papers through out the year!

Chrissy Glowka: I leave Mr. J all the prop wash he ever wanted and I leave thanks to all my teachers for my years at Avon High.

Pam Hayward: I leave Mr. Herl the honor of being Grand Poobah of the Fred Flintstone Buffalo Club. YABBA DABBA DOO!!!

Chris Johnson: I leave to Mr. Herlihy a class that actually enjoys physics, and to Todd Crane my Benson & Hedges Pen.

Laura Mamayek: To Mr. Conti (troll) I leave some up-to-date jokes and a Spanish class that is awake. I also leave with Pleasure!

Mike Matta: I leave to Mr. Ruggles "Ubi est tuus sub ubi?" Mr. Lyons can take my Matta's Mangle Meanings book. I leave Mr. Gifford, Rabbit (bunny) food. I leave the school Jan Brady's groovy records.

Sue Nasipoulos: I would like to leave letting everyone know that even though I was elected most shy- I'm not! I also leave Mr. Lyons our tradition.

Dawn Quinton: I leave the underclassmen all the privileges and fun of being a senior! (NONE). I leave Mr. Lyons with a step stool I had to use to reach his pencil sharpener.

Cindy Savage: I leave to Mr. Conti a conscious Spanish III class, to Mr. Morss a lot of thanks, to Mr. Gifford 1.3 points and Mr. Henderson more than one person in a class.

Betty-Jo Seldin: I leave a carton of cigarettes to Mr. Levine, my bathroom stall to Stacey Lohnes, and to Jodi Brennan another 3 fun years with Toshiba.

Stacey Selman: I leave Mr. Lyons my Squirtgun.

Jeff Small: I leave to Mr. Gifford and Mr. Lyons my 90 m.p.h. knuckleball.

Mike Sweet: I leave Mr. Lyons my shop glasses and a mustache man, and to Mr. Gifford all the suicide line drills.

Derek Tawil: I leave my lightening arm to Mr. Gifford along with my blazing speed. I also leave my English entallegets to Mr. Lyons.

Barbara Tolson: I leave Mr. J another Tolson to pick on him for four years and a wide awake bookkeeping class. Also, to Kristen Sweet the #3 volleyball uniform, and Jodi Brennan 3 more exciting years here.

Brendan P. Ward: To Mr. Ruggles I leave a few Sprites and my cynical comments, to Coach Lyons and Coach Gifford my thanks and deep respect.

A WISH OF HOPE FOR JESSICA SAULNIER

Sometimes the things that seem the worst
 Turn out to be the best ...
 So think of this as just a time to get a little rest ...
 And while we cannot understand
 Why things happen as they do,
 The One who hangs the rainbow out
 Has his own plans for you ...
 And may it comfort you to know
 That you are in his care
 And we are all a part of God
 And God is everywhere!

ALTHOUGH A VERY SMALL SCHOOL BY COMPARISON, AVON TEAMS ESTABLISHED AN AREA-WIDE REPUTATION FOR TEAM EXCELLENCE AND

PERSONAL PRIDE

Brendan takes his customary position at the head of the pack.

Cross Country

Going into the 1988 season, Coach Gifford and Coach Lyons had high expectations for the team. Five of the top six runners were returning from the league championship team. Avon harriers had not lost a meet in over a year and a half.

Our runners got out of the blocks quickly, easily defeating Bristol Plymouth in the first meet and narrowly defeating large school power Diman in a tri-meet at Holbrook.

The team literally ran through league competition, finishing the year with 14 wins and 0 losses. The season's climax was a decisive win at home against Norton and Westport, which enabled Avon to capture the League Championship for the second consecutive year.

Senior Tri-Captain, Brendan Ward, paced Avon throughout the season, setting six course records in doing so. Senior Cory Brooks, a consistently strong runner, was named a Mayflower League All-Star. Tri-Captains Mike Sweet and Karl Smith, despite injuries, had a productive year and were also named All-Stars. The all-important fifth spot was alternately filled by Seniors Pete Piekarski, Mark Doucette, and Scott Eisnor.

Juniors Brian Cox, Jacob McKechnie, and Derek Jensen all ran well. Sophomores John McDonald, Stephen Gaul, Milton Nasiopoulos, and Keith Berry all showed future promise as Avon cross-country runners.

The girls on the team were Sue Nasiopoulos, April Saulnier, Jessica Saulnier, Darlene Merlo, Danielle Laurretto, and Catherine Puckett, who all improved dramatically over the season.

Volleyball

The 1988 Girls' Varsity Volleyball team placed second in the Mayflower League, Small School Division, with a record of 11 wins and 4 losses.

The team, led by Captain Ann Cerrato, was relatively inexperienced at the varsity level. However, three veteran seniors gave stability to the squad. These seniors were: Sue DeSena, Pauline Ciolek, Barbara Tölsön. Junior, Ann Cerrato, was also an important member of the team.

The team's first game ended on a sour note when it was defeated by Norfolk. The team quickly got into gear by winning its next five games, stopped temporarily by Southeastern.

The Lady Panthers finished the season strong, defeating their final five opponents in the regular season. However, on reaching the state tournament, Avon lost to a strong Bishop Stang Team.

The starting line-up for the Lady Panthers was: Ann Cerrato, Steph Dunham, Lisa Grenham, Kellie Kopke, Julie Barker, and Kristin Sweet. However, even with this lineup of fine players, the team could not have succeeded without the strong bench of Sue DeSena, Pauline Cory looks strong after one mile.

A break in the action

Sue crosses the finish line.

Ciolek, Barbara Tolson, Tara Cruikshank, Annmarie Paine, Alexandra Mitchelson, and Keriann Willdigg.

The team elected Lisa Grenham as 1988 M.V.P.

Good luck to next year's team and to the graduating seniors of 1989!

Soccer

After 11 years at the helm, Avon High School's winningest soccer coach, Joseph Gugliotta, decided to step down, leaving the reigns to one time AHS soccer coach, Domenic Mastriano. Mr. Mastriano knew he would have difficult going, having lost all but starters to graduation. "We need a lot of work to reach our potential," said Coach Mastriano. The team went onto the field trying to reach that potential.

Returning for the Panthers were co-captains Jeff Small, a league All-Star and Enterprise All-Scholastic player on defense, and goalie Mike Matta, who was a league and Eastern Mass. All-Star. The other returning members were: Seniors Chris Johnson, Derek Tawil, and Brian Costa; Juniors Scott Mahan, Bob Klimas, Mike Juknevicus, Todd Crane; and Sophomore Ben Chapman. Several new athletes were introduced to the team this year, hoping to contribute their skills in a big way. They were: Brian Fernald, Chris Ericson, Pat Ferrara, Jason Puliafico, Mark Mitchelson, and Eric Czaikowski.

The team got off to a slow start, dropping four of the first five games to tough competition. After several position changes, the team's spirits were lifted as goals were scored and games won. From that point on, the team's record was 7-5-1 and a surprising season ending of 8-9-1. Finishing just under .500 was a goal in itself considering the league record was 7-6-1.

The Panthers tied West Bridgewater in what proved to be the most exciting and emotional game of the year.

Ben Chapman led all Avon players with 6 goals, while Brian Costa chipped in with 5 goals and 8 assists. Scott Mahan added 18 assists with the help of his strategic flip throw-ins. All-Stars for the team were Mike Matta and Jeff Small. Honorable mention players were Derek Tawil and Chris Johnson.

"After losing nine seniors to graduation, we knew it would take a lot of hard work to establish ourselves as a strong contender for the small school crown.

We didn't win the championship but we know that we played our hardest and finished better than most people expected at 8-9-1. We are proud of that record and we are proud to have played for Avon High."

FOR AVON'S CAGE TEAMS, TALENT, TEAMWORK, AND GREAT COACHING PRODUCED

A WINNING SEASON

Mark goes high to control the tap.

A Championship Season

Coach Herlihy had high expectations for his varsity team entering the 1988-89 season. The Panthers were tested early against Holbrook in the first round of the Tip Off Tournament.

Avon won that game, but when the championship game was postponed due to snow, the team went to its Mayflower League schedule.

The Panthers won four in a row before losing one of the most exciting games of the season to Cardinal Spellman in front of a packed house at Avon. Senior co-captain Mike Matta was named M.V.P. of the Tournament. The Panthers then ran through division opponents, winning ten in a row, including a thriller at rival West Bridgewater.

In the championship clinching game against Norfok Aggies, Coach Herlihy won his 200th career victory Coach of the Year honors in the Mayflower League.

In post season playoff competition

Avon first faced Westport League championship. The team lost the game 72-58, but went on to win 68-61 against West Bridgewater in the consolation game. In State playoff competition Avon played Norwell in the first round of the South Sectional tournament, winning 63-59. From there the Panthers went on to the quarter final round losing 71-47 to Harwich.

Team members were co-captains Mark Doucette and league M.V.P. Mike Matta, all-star forward Brendan Ward, all-star guard Cory Brooks, junior guard Karl Smith, Chris Johnson, Derek Tawil, Jeff Small, Mike Sweet, Brian Costa, and Pete Piekarski. All these players together added enough depth to allow the team to finish its regular season with only one loss. Congratulations to the 1989 Mayflower League Champions!

Undefeated Champions

After last seasons 16-2 record and with three returning veterans and five quality players from last years JV2 team, the Panthers, coached by Mr. Gifford, looked toward another dominating season of play. Freshman sensation Lamont Bullock added a potent inside game to go along with Avons outstanding three point shooting attack of juniors Brian Cox and Scott Mahan. Running the offense was junior point guard Todd Crane, who showed consistent improvement game after game. Rounding out the starting five was junior power forward Derek Jensen, who constantly filled the lane in Avons devastating Run and Gun offense. Also contributing off the bench with strong play were juniors Bob Klimas and T.J. Leonard, and senior Chuck Barrows.

The JV team won by an average of forty points a game. Their highest point total was 96 against Tri-County. The team finished off the season by beating strong West Bridgewater and Old Colony teams twice to clinch an undefeated season of 18-0.

Leading the Panthers Run and Gun offense were Lamont Bullock with an average of 19 points per game, followed by Brian Cox with 18. Scott Mahan with 17, and Derek Jensen with 10 points per game.

It should be noted that for Coach Gifford, this was the second undefeated team he has coached this year. His cross country team has not lost a meet in two years. Very few coaches anywhere can claim the kinds of won- lost records that he has in cross country, basketball, and baseball. Congratulations Coach!

The JV2 Season

Led by returning veterans Pat Mailman Ford, Tom Griffin, Ben Chapman, and Mike Yak, the JV2 boys started strong by winning four of their first five games. These wins were against Bristol Plymouth, South Shore Voc., Blue Hills, and Southeastern. The team continued its winning season with help from Mark Mitchelson, and strong offensive play from sophomore newcomer Pat Ferrara. The team scoring leaders were sophomores Pat Forde and Tom Griffin, with sophomore guard Ben Chapman doing a creditable job

Sue Naz practices free throws prior to a game.

COACH HERLIHY WINS GAME 200, THE LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP, AND COACH OF THE YEAR HONORS

Towards the end of the 88-89 basketball season, Coach Herlihy reached a plateau that most high school coaches can only dream about. That plateau was winning his 200th career game as head coach at Avon High School.

In Coach Herlihy's 200th win, the Panthers clinched the Mayflower League Small School Division title. In twenty-three years of coaching he has led the Panthers to the League title twice in 1983 and 1989, and has taken his teams to several state tournament appearances.

After the season, Mr. Herlihy was voted Coach of the Year by his Mayflower League Fellow coaches.

In addition to his years of coaching basketball, he has spent sixteen years as varsity baseball coach, guiding his teams to two league titles.

Mr. Herlihy has taught math and sciences at AHS for twenty-four years.

as well. Junior forward Mike Yak controlled the boards for Avon with his strong rebound game.

JV2 topped off its season with two stunning victories at West Bridgewater, winning one game by one point and the second by two points. We congratulate coach Peter Gill and the entire JV2 team for their efforts in a strong winning season.

Varsity Girls

Losing three starters from last years team, the Lady Panthers looked forward to a rebuilding year in 1989.

Coached by Miss Maureen Shanan, the Panthers got off to a shaky start against Abington in the Tap-Off Tournament. However, the team rallied and finished in third place with a 4-6 league record, 5-11 overall. The Panthers ended the season on a positive note, winning their final two games.

The team was led by Captain, All-Star, and MVP, Steph Dunham, who averaged 14 points per game. Kristin Sweet, coming off a sprained ankle early in the season, returned to run the offensive plays for Avon. Julie Barker played very well at the guard position, in this her first Varsity season. Annmarie Paine and Keriann Willdigg played the center spot aggressively, while Lisa Grenham played consistently at the forward position. Ann Cerrato and Julie Bevens were also able to make an impact coming off the bench. Seniors, Sue DeSena and Sue Nasiopoulous, contributed greatly while playing the back-up guard positions.

With eight returning players, and all five starters, the Varsity girls plan to be a dominant force in the Mayflower League next year.

J.V. Girls

This year's Junior Varsity team was very special. In spite of having only six players, it began the season with four consecutive wins. The girls' Junior Varsity consisted of Jennifer Kuzborski, Tara Cruikshank, Melissa Standberry, Catherine Puckett, Jennifer Burke, and Laurie-Lee Purnell.

The team's leading rebounder was Catherine Puckett and leading scorer Laurie-Lee Purnell. Jennifer Burke was outstanding on defense and Jennifer Kuzborski, Tara Cruikshank, and Melissa Standberry were excellent all-around.

The team's record at press time is 11 wins and 5 losses. The J.V.'s defeated tough teams like Sacred Heart, Abington, and Holbrook, but the highpoint of the season was defeating West Bridgewater for the first time in ten years and seeing the look on Coach Julien's face when they did it.

MOST EMBARRASSING MOMENTS 1989

Kelli Anderson The time I backed into Chris Johnson's car in the parking lot, and the time I fell down the stairs in the locker room.

Charles Barrows In my sophomore year, I was walking down the hall eating a Ring Ding and tripped on my foot and the Ring Ding was mashed into my face. I walked down the hall and into my class with creme on my face.

Michelle Berry The time I fell in front of everyone in English, and the time I fainted in gym jumping for the bar.

Stacy Selman In sophomore year when I asked why flies are called flies.

Lynda Brown When a wire broke in my mouth and Dr. Rappa drove me to the dentist to get it fixed.

Kristen Buccella When I was walking across the street to meet a boy, I slipped and fell, landing half way underneath a car going down the street.

Pauline Ciolek When my car caught on fire at the Westgate Mall, flames were flying everywhere, and a crowd was standing around screaming "It's going to blow!!" The fire department came and put it out and left a pile of burned junk.

Brian Costa LIGHTS OUT!!! Old Colony J.V. Basketball game.

David D'Auria The time I sniffed too much propane and was KO'd.

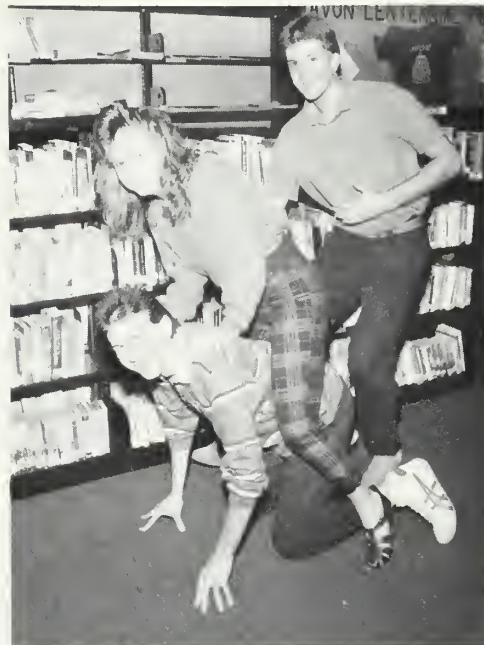

Joseph DeAngelis When Mr. Henderson caught me with a "Vote for Laura" sticker on my fly.

Scott Eisor When I received the nickname "Balki"

Jodi Ferrini Remember in 8th grade when I pulled my hamstring in the gym and Nikki thought I was paralyzed.

Mike Sweet While hanging on the rim of the basketball hoop, Mike Matta, Jeff Small, and Derek Tawil pulled my shorts down to my ankles.

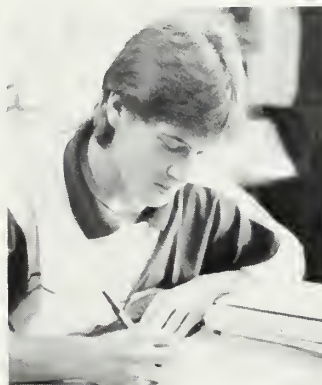

Laura Mamayck Remember the time at Thompson's Island my junior year, while trying to get over a 10 ft. obstacle I ended up hanging and my shirt went up revealing my entire upper half to my classmates (male & female).

Chrissy Glowka When Mr. J sent me for a Prop Wash my freshman year in a senior class and there's no such thing as a Prop Wash. Also when I hit Mr. J in the head (only kidding around) and I didn't realize he was mad until he sent me to the office.

Mike Matta When I fell off the rings in gym right on my cranium.

Dawn Quinton When Betty-Jo Seldin was giving me a piggy back ride and she tripped right in front of Mr. J. Also, when Mr. Henderson came out in the pouring rain to start my car and after he started it, it died two more times.

Chris Johnson When I was playing football at the Butler and ran into the big light pole.

Sue Nasiopoulos When I was at one of the villages in Greece I was walking by some cows and slipped on a huge pile of manure.

Derek Tawil When I was working down the old wing and I set off the fire alarm.

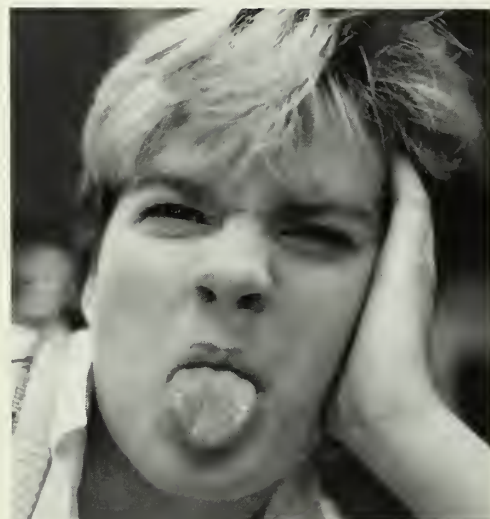

Barbara Tolson When I chased Mr. Conti downstairs with a squirt gun and he picked me up and threw me head first into the barrel ... in front of the whole cafeteria.

YEARBOOK PRODUCTION CLASS

7th period deadlines layouts copy sheets decisions
 the "decorated room"
 Brian's pin-ups
 the white coats
 typing-girls or boys?
 much anxiety
 but the yearbook got done with the help of Derek, Jeff, Jodi, Brian, Laura, Kristen, Chrissy, Scott, and Mike.
 Special appreciation goes to Mrs.
 Mahoney, Joe DeAngelis, the photo class, and Mr. Ruggles' second semester junior yearbook class of Brian Cox,
 Steph Dunham, Scott Mahan, Alex
 Mitchelson, Melissa Standberry, Kristin Sweet.
